

I am against allowing the use of cell phones on commercial flights. The already significant noise on the plane will cause people to shout into the phones and disturb the peace of those around them.